

February 7, 2018

Contact: Ralph Newell

Phone: 703.385.2419

Email: Ralph@DiverseEducation.com

2018 Most Promising Places to Work in Student Affairs

Fairfax, Va.— For the fifth consecutive year, Diverse: Issues In Higher Education is pleased to announce the Most Promising Places to Work in Student Affairs. The findings will be published in the March 8, 2018 edition of the magazine.

With a focus on workplace diversity, staffing practices and work environment, the research uses a web-based survey approach to examine categories such as family friendliness, salary/benefits and professional development opportunities, to name a few.

The list of 13 most promising places to work in student affairs (in alphabetical order) includes:

- California State University Channel Islands
- Clark University
- Holy Names University
- Miami University
- Pennsylvania College of Technology
- Rutgers University–New Brunswick
- Saint Louis University
- Shepherd University
- The Ohio State University
- The University of Vermont
- Towson University
- University of West Georgia
- Virginia Tech

In partnership with the American College Personnel Association (ACPA), Diverse: Issues In Higher Education will present this national recognition to the winners during the ACPA annual meeting taking place March 11-14, 2018, in Houston, Texas.

For over three decades, Diverse: Issues In Higher Education has been America's premier source of timely news, provocative commentary, insightful interviews and in-depth special reports on diversity in higher education. Savvy individuals who appreciate the crucial and ever-changing role that higher education plays in the lives of students, professionals, their families and their communities make reading Diverse a regular habit.

###